Police Check and BlueCard's and other associated forms have been simplified!

There is a new portal for registration of volunteers. The Welcome Portal can be accessed via <http://archbne.org/welcome>.

In the portal, volunteers will be asked to enter personal information and volunteer position details which will automatically prepopulate forms to be signed.

If you have not completed forms yet and are involved in ministry PLEASE ATTEND TO THIS ASAP.

If you have any questions, please contact Sandra in the office.

All volunteers, whether directly or indirectly involved with children and vulnerable adults, are required to view a 25 minute video presentation, as part of our compliance with the Archdiocese Safeguarding Policy. It can be viewed at: safeguardingaob.com.au/safeguarding-training.html

Then go to top right-hand corner, scroll down using the far-right arrow, to Safeguarding Essential Presentation (level 1). At the conclusion, please print off and sign the PDF version called Certificate of Completion, and return it to the parish office, either in person, or to the secured box at the church entrance.

Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility.

At times it seems we have rewritten the 'Golden Rule' to say: Do unto others before they can do unto you! In saying this we are not encouraging each other to do good, but to be defensive. Jesus tells us to go the extra mile, turn the other cheek, outdo ourselves in generosity and rise above the fray. He is not suggesting that we allow ourselves to be abused, but that we not perpetuate the antagonism out of which the mistreatment arose. He is not advocating passivity, but he is saying that we should not retaliate. Jesus is describing what we today would call active non-resistance, the attitude taught by Gandhi and Martin Luther King.

We are familiar with the answer to the question: Who is my neighbour? We usually interpret it to mean those we do not particularly like. It is important to love them, to be kind to them, to help them when they are in need. But these are not the people whom Jesus is talking about in today's reading. He tells us that the neighbours whom we are to love are those people who do not like us. We are to love those who deliberately exclude us from their social circles, who talk about us behind our backs. We are to love those who make us feel that we are not good enough for them, those who resent us for our accomplishments. We are to love those who exploit us or do us harm. This is indeed a radical teaching.

Samaritans experienced another wonderful Tuesday Morning Activities last week and we are looking forward to this coming Tuesday to meet up with our Samaritan friends which we have developed over the weeks. We welcome new people to join us. Just come along about 9.30am and meet up with our community. It will cost you a mere $5 to cover the cost of a superb morning tea, plus three free raffle tickets and a lucky door ticket. We look forward to meeting you!

The focus this week is on our lively Catering Crews. The action all starts at 7am with the arrival of catering's early crew with all the ingredients for the days lunch. This early crew starts the preparation for the sandwich making as gradually the rest of the crew arrives. They are a busy group, heads down, but a very happy group with tons of laughter emitting from the kitchen while they work. Catering is usually provided for 60 or more people each week, including many with special dietary requirements. They even come up with a surprise addition to each plate for those special days. (Near Ekka time EVERYONE is looking for that extra special treat of a Strawberry Ice-cream.) What a team!

They distribute the plates individually to each person and serve the hot water for the tea and coffee distribution.

Of course the team also clears the plates and does the washing up and the mopping of the kitchen floor.

I feel sure they all sleep well on Tuesday nights.

Again WHAT A TEAM. Samaritans are very grateful to our catering volunteers.

So if you think you would like to be part of The Samaritans Community, contact Jill on 0438 612 177. If you live locally maybe one of our great drivers could provide transport for you to and from the Parish Hall.

All of us would love to get to know you.
